Historical

In 1904 Bethel Presbytery took action looking toward the founding of a college or colleges for women, which should be owned and controlled entirely by the Presbyteries of the Synod of South Carolina in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States. An ad interim committee consisting of Rev. S. C. Byrd and Rev. W. M. McPheeters, D.D., was appointed to draft a Plan of Administration or Charter for the proposed institution or institutions. At that time there were two privately owned Presbyterian colleges for girls located within the bounds of the Synod, viz., the Presbyterian College for Women, located in Columbia, S. C., and Chicora College for Young Ladies, located in Greenville, S. C. Committees were appointed to negotiate with the owners of these colleges to ascertain whether or not either or both of them might be secured by the Presbyteries. These committees carried out the instruction of the Presbytery, but failed during the years of 1904 and 1905 to secure possession of either college.

The above ad interim committee was continued, Rev. W. G. Neville and Rev. W. L. Lingle being added to it, and was authorized "to confer with the Presbyterian colleges within the bounds of the Synod looking to the Presbyterial ownership and control of the said colleges and their association under a plan which would consolidate our educational interests." Accordingly, in the Spring of 1906, a majority of the stock of Chicora College for Young Ladies was offered for sale to the Presbyteries of Bethel, Enoree and South Carolina, on condition that the remaining stock be secured by the Presbyteries. This offer was accepted by the Presbyteries, and trustees were appointed to take all legal and other steps necessary to consummate the transaction, to establish a Presbyterial college for women and to govern and control the college until the next regular meeting of the Presbyteries, to elect a President and Facutly of the college and to prepare a charter for the government of the institution and submit the same to the Presbyteries for ratification at their next regular meetings.

"The Board of Trustees of Chicora College" was chartered May 30, 1906, and the transaction by which the name, good-will, property, etc., of Chicora College for Young Ladies became the property of the Presbyteries of Bethel, Enoree and South Carolina, was consummated. The price paid for the stock which was purchased was $33,500.00. The remaining stock amounting to $3,500.00 was donated. Those who generously donated their stock were: Mr. H. F. Means, Mrs. M. J. Means, Mr. C. E. Graham, Dr. C. C. Jones and Capt. O. P. Mills.

The Board elected the Rev. S. C. Byrd, D.D., President of the College and Mrs. S. C. Byrd, Dean of Women and Professor of Bible, who assumed the duties of their offices June 1, 1906.

It being the desire and purpose of the three owning and controlling Presbyteries to have associated with themselves the other Presbyteries of the Synod of South Carolina, they, in the fall of 1906, overtured these Presbyteries to unite with them in the ownership and control of the College. The Presbyteries acted favorably on the overture and the College is now owned jointly by the Presbyteries of Bethel, Charleston, Congaree, Enoree, Harmony, Pee Dee, Piedmont and South Carolina, of the Synod of South Carolina in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

On February 9, 1915, the College for Women, Columbia, S. C., was offered to and accepted by the Board of Trustees of Chicora College, and was consolidated with Chicora College on June 4, 1915.

On the recommendation of the Board of Trustees and by the required vote of the controlling Presbyteries, Chicora College was moved to Columbia, S. C., and its name changed to Chicora College for Women.

In August, 1893, the Presbyterian Female Seminary was organized in Greenville, S. C., under the auspices of the three Presbyterian churches of the city. The Rev. J. F. McKinnon was Principal from 1893 to 1895, and the Rev. S. R. Preston, D.D., from 1895 to 1898. In 1898 the institution was reorganized by Dr. Preston as a private stock company under the name of Chicora College for Young Ladies, and was conducted by him until it was sold to the Presbyteries of Bethel, Enoree and South Carolina, in 1906.

The Presbyterian College for Women was organized in Columbia, S. C., as a private stock company in 1890, and was so conducted until 1910. In that year the stock of the corporation was transferred to a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees, and the name of the institution was changed to that of College for Women, and under this name it was conducted until June 4th, 1915, when it was transferred to and consolidated with Chicora College.

The Presidents of the institution were, Rev. W. R. Atkinson, D.D., Rev. Robt. P. Pell, Litt.D., and Miss Euphemia McClintock, A.B.

In July, 1927, the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South, in session at Montreat, N. C., expressed its conviction "that the educational situation in our Church greatly needs clarification and such constructive procedure as might follow upon a Church-wide survey of our educational situation," and by resolution asked that such a survey be made, under the direction and supervision of the General Assembly's Executive Committee of Education and Ministerial Relief and the Advisory Committee of Christian Education. This survey was endorsed and authorized by the Assembly's Committee of Forty-four on Church Work and by the Synods of the Assembly. Accordingly a survey was made and the report submitted in 1928.

In October, 1927, the Synod of South Carolina, at its meeting at Sumter, S. C., adopted the following resolution: "That Synod appoint through its Moderator an Ad-Interim Committee of seven to consider the entire relation of the Church to education."

The Ad-Interim Committee was appointed.

The general conclusion of the Church-wide survey was: "With all possible allowance for individual variation and error in computing educational load and carrying power, even the most optimistic cannot deny that the Church is overloaded with schools. Some adjustment is inevitable. The logical outcome of this investigation is to accept the factual data presented, so far as possible, to accept or formulate principles dealing with the situation, and on the basis of those facts and principles to bring about a progressive re-adjustment of the educational load and carrying power until they are approximately balanced. The situation is so serious that this should begin at once."

In reference to the educational program of the Synod of South Carolina particularly, the report of the survey says: "Evidence already set down indicates, not so much on the basis of what others have done as on the basis of what this Synod has actually done in the past, that this load is too heavy. Particularly is this true when the legitimate aspirations and needs of Chicora College are added. Chicora has always been pushed into the background. Particularly is this true when proper emphasis is given to the necessity for continuous support. The apparent excess of load over carrying power is so serious as to warrant the most careful canvass of all possible lines of adjustment.

"The Survey regards the financial position of Chicora College as essentially sound in respect to necessary assets for campus, plant and equipment. The financial policy of the College deserves commendation. It has maintained a secure financial standard by living within its income." After suggesting certain plans of procedure, the report continues: "Further, it must be noted that neither plan as stated above makes any provision for endowment necessary to secure a standard rating and provide for adequate salaries. It is suggested that in any program of development, Chicora recognize the necessity of increasing endowment as well as the expansion of plant for a well-balanced and permanent future."

In October, 1928, the Ad-Interim Committee of the Synod of South Carolina appointed to study the relation of Synod to education, reported to the Synod meeting at Columbia, S. C., that, "The Committee interprets its task to be to study the general educational policy of the Synod, to consider a permanent program, and to suggest guiding principles for the future, rather than ways and means of dealing with present emergencies." The Committee submitted the following recommendations, which were adopted by the Synod:

"3. That a committee of nine, to be known as Synod's Permanent Committee of Christian Education, be appointed, to act for the Synod along lines hereinafter specified.

"7. That this Permanent Committee shall study the possibilities of the future of Chicora College as to:

(a) The permanent site of the College;
(b) The liquidation of all assets not needed in its work;
(c) The payment of existing debts;
(d) The possibility of bringing Chicora to the status of a standard college;
(e) Whether the present constituency is sufficient to support a standard college for women, and if not, what other course might be advantageously pursued in the matter; and to report its findings upon these questions to the next stated meeting of Synod.

"10. The Synod overtures the constituent Presbyteries to transfer to the Synod, which is already the Clearing House for its Educational activities, the ownership and control of Presbyterian College of South Carolina and of Chicora College."

In response to the overture from the Synod to transfer the ownership and control of the college from the Presbyteries to the Synod, the Presbyteries owning and controlling Chicora College for Women unanimously agreed to the overture and authorized the transfer of ownership and control of the College from themselves to the Synod.

The Synod in session at Anderson, S. C., in September, 1929, received a report of the vote of the Presbyteries on its overture and adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, The Presbyteries of Bethel, Charleston, Congaree, Enoree, Harmony, Pee Dee, Piedmont and South Carolina, owning and controlling Chicora College for Women, have given a unanimous vote in the affirmative on the overture of the Synod of South Carolina to the said Presbyteries 'to transfer to the Synod the ownership and control of Chicora College for Women';

"Be it resolved, That the Synod of South Carolina does hereby accept and assume the ownership and control of Chicora College for Women in the full stead of the said Presbyteries, assuming all the rights, powers, privileges, duties and obligations of the said Presbyteries under the Charter of the Board of Trustees of Chicora College."

The Synod also received the report of its Permanent Committee on Christian Education and adopted the following recommendations of the Committee:

"4. That the Synod re-affirm its conviction that it has a permanent mission in the higher education of young women as well as that of young men, and avow anew its intention to carry on this work, under the blessing of God.

"5. That the Synod instruct this Permanent Committee to vigorously study and report to the Synod upon this question: Whether this purpose can be best accomplished by maintaining the Synod's college for young women as an independent unit, or by consolidating it with some other institution that would carry on the work and would be at least partially controlled by this Synod.

"6. That the committee be authorized to conduct such correspondence and conferences as will enable it to discover the conditions and merits of any such possible consolidations."

The Permanent Committee conducted correspondence and held conferences in accordance with the above resolution. At a meeting of the Committee held on February 4, 1930, the following resolution was adopted unanimously:

"It is the sense of this committee that the maintenance of Chicora College in its present status, as a separate institution in the educational program of the Synod of South Carolina is not possible, but that it must be consolidated with some other Presbyterian institution, unless a minimum of $300,000.00 for endowment to comply with the requirements of the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges be promptly provided."

The Committee received propositions to consolidate Chicora with other Presbyterian institutions of high standing. After a full consideration of these propositions, the Committee "arrived at a conclusion as to what seems in the Committee's judgment to be the best policy for the Synod to pursue in the furtherance of its avowed purpose to continue in the higher education of young women."

A special meeting of the Synod of South Carolina was held in the First Presbyterian Church, Columbia, S. C., at 11:00 A. M., March 24, 1930, for the purpose of receiving and acting on the report of the Permanent Committee of Christian Education, touching Chicora College for Women and the Synod's program for the higher education of young women. The Committee presented its report with its recommendations. The report was received and the recommendations were adopted, and are as follows:

Whereas, the cause of Christian Education among young women in the Presbyterian Church of the United States will be greatly strengthened by the unification of certain educational units, and

Whereas, it appears that the coalition of Queen's College and Chicora College will conserve the heritage and materially increase the usefulness of these institutions in serving the womanhood of the South;

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the controlling bodies of these two colleges, consisting of the Synod of South Carolina on the one hand, and the Presbyteries of Kings Mountain, Granville and Mecklenburg of the Synod of North Carolina on the other hand, do hereby enter into a mutual agreement which shall become effective and binding when ratified by these respective controlling bodies,

Now, therefore, in consideration of mutual covenants and agreements, it is mutually agreed among the parties hereto as follows:

(1) That the title of Queens College, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina, and its successors, shall be vested in a Board of Trustees composed of thirty (30) members, one-half of whom shall be elected by the Synod of South Carolina and one-half of whom shall be elected by the Presbyteries of Kings Mountain, Granville, and Mecklenburg of the Synod of North Carolina, and from other Presbyteries in the Synod of North Carolina, or by the Synod of North Carolina, provided said bodies shall have been given a share in the ownership of the said college.

(2) That the Synod of South Carolina does hereby agree to liquidate the assets of the Board of Trustees of Chicora College, pay off all indebtedness, dissolve the corporation or other entity now known and operated as the Board of Trustees of Chicora College, and pay over the surplus to the Trustees of Queens College, and the Board of Trustees of Chicora College are hereby authorized and directed to carry out these provisions. The Board of Trustees of Chicora College and the Synod of South Carolina do hereby release, hold harmless, and forever discharge the other parties hereto, and Queens College, Incorporated, from liability on all debts, claims, demands, actions and causes of actions arising out of any transaction or agreement entered into by the Board of Trustees of Chicora College or its agents.

(3) That the institution resulting from the affiliation of Queens College and Chicora College shall be located in the City of Charlotte, State of North Carolina.

(4) That, for the time being, the name of Queens-Chicora College shall be adopted, and the new Board of Trustees, as provided for in this agreement, shall be vested with authority, if in their discretion they deem it advisable, to change the name of the institution, taking into consideration the goodwill and heritage of the affiliated colleges.

(5) That all equity in the property of the Board of Trustees of Chicora College shall be turned over to the new Board of Trustees of Queens College, Incorporated, or its successors, as herein provided for the purpose of erecting a dormitory, or for the purpose of increasing the endowment, or for any other use or purpose that the new Board of Trustees of the new institution shall in their uncontrolled discretion see fit to apply such funds. Provided, however, that any trust funds which shall be turned over to the Board of Trustees of the consolidated institution shall be applied according to the terms and stipulations of the trust agreements creating these trusts.

(6) That the Synod of South Carolina, in consideration of its interest and holdings in the new institution, agrees to place the new institution on its budget for a fair percentage of the benevolence for Christian Education as an expression of the interest of the Synod of South Carolina in the education of its women; and the Synod of South Carolina further agrees that the new institution, to be known as Queens-Chicora College, shall have access to the educational field now held by the Synod of South Carolina. The said Synod of South Carolina endorses the new institution and commends it as the official college for women in the Synod of South Carolina, giving assistance and encouragement to the new institution in its endeavor to secure a student body of the highest type from that Synod.

(7) That the scholastic records of all graduates and students of Chicora College and Queens College shall be protected by this affiliation in so far as the Trustees of the consolidated institution are able to protect and safeguard these rights.

(8) That the new institution, to be known as Queens-Chicora College, will assume all responsibility for the raising of the present endowment sufficient to place the institution on the membership list of the Southern Association, and will not expect the Synod of South Carolina at this time to engage in any campaign for that purpose.

(9) That no limitation or discrimination shall be imposed upon the number of students to be received from the Synod of South Carolina. The new institution will make an open appeal for registration, and not only allow but encourage as many students from South Carolina to enroll as desire up to the filling of the capacity of the institution.

(10) That due provision shall be made for Dr. S. C. Byrd and Mrs. Byrd, of the faculty of Chicora College.

(11) That the new institution, to be known as Queens-Chicora College, shall be both in name and in fact the official standard college for women of all the owning and controlling bodies, and shall have and enjoy their full and sincere acknowledgment and support in prayers, patronage, and gifts.

(12) That the united efforts of the contracting parties be and are hereby pledged to the continued development and progress of the new institution for even greater efficiency and usefulness in the great cause of Christian education of young women in harmony with the standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Duly ratified and adopted by the respective parties hereto and spead upon the minutes of these respective bodies as their official act and deed upon the dates hereinbelow set forth."

The above agreement, adopted by the Synod of South Carolina, was ratified by the Presbyteries of Mecklenburg, Kings Mountain and Granville of the Synod of North Carolina, owning and controlling Queens College, Charlotte, N. C., at their regular meetings in April, 1930.

Rev. S. C. Byrd, D.D., LL.D., and Mrs. S. C. Byrd, Litt.D., the one the President and the other the Dean of Women and Professor of Bible of Chicora College since its organization as a Presbyterial or Synodical college, June 1, 1906, go with the College into the new organization—Mr. Byrd as President-Emeritus and Mrs. Byrd as Professor of Bible.

Thus closes another epoch in the history of the Presbyterian Church in South Carolina in its work of Christian higher education—from June 1, 1906, to August 31, 1930, twenty-four years and a few months.

As we review the work and life of the College during this period, there is much in them for which to thank God. The Church began this work on June 1, 1906, with a debt of $30,500.00 to which was soon added $9,000.00, making a total debt of $39,500.00, the purchase price of the campus and plant, which was bought entirely on credit and without any cash payment, and without a cent in the Treasury with which to begin operation. The last official audit of the College, as of March 31, 1930, gave the value of the net assets for college purposes as $409,095.04. In the providence of God it was not given to the College to enjoy rich material gifts from either the Church, individual philanthropists or benevolent agencies. Hence it has never been possessed of endowment funds adequate to meet the requirements of the recognized standardizing agencies, such as the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States.

But notwithstanding the financial handicap of the institution, its academic and literary standards were advanced and maintained and its work was recognized and accepted by State Boards of Education, Universities and standardizing agencies. The College was a member of the South Carolina Association of Colleges, the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South, the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, the Association of American Colleges and was on the Four-Year Non-member List of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States.

However, the accomplishments of these years of the College in which we have the highest satisfaction and for which give the greatest thanks are not its material accumulations and literary standards, but that group of fine and splendid, Bible-taught and consecrated Christian women, who came hither to study and learn more of our blessed Lord and Saviour and the will of God for their hearts and lives and who were here taught by precept and example the things that pertain to the Kingdom of God and their highest well-being for time and eternity. These have gone forth to the Home, the Church and the State truly educated, Christian, womenly women. For these we thank God and pray that "the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit"—the blessing of the Triune God—may be and abide with them now and forevermore. Non ministrari sed ministrare.

While Chicora College for Women ceases now to operate as an independent institution under the sole ownership and control of the Synod of South Carolina, the College itself in its life, ideals, purpose and character, its history, good-will, records and Alumnae and its hopes and aspirations for the future has not ceased operation and is not closed; these all abide and merge in the like of Queens College, thus forming the offspring institution—Queens-Chicora College—for a more abundant life and a greater work and service in the future. Neither has the work of the Synod of South Carolina for the Christian higher education of women been abandoned by the Synod. Rather the Synod has joined its aims and efforts, resources and interests and will join its prayers and expectations with those of the three strong Presbyteries of the Synod of North Carolina, Mecklenburg, Kings Mountain and Granville, for the building of a greater, a stronger and hence a more influential institution for the larger service of God, the Church, the Synods of the Carolinas, the Home and the State. We pray that the richest blessing of God may rest upon Queens-Chicora, that she "may strengthen her stakes, lengthen her cords and spread out the cover of her habitation," and that her influence and service may bless multitudes and abound to the uttermost parts of the earth unto the glory of the only living and true God.
